

NAME: _____

Chapter 4 Review

A+
100%8 Written Questions

1. HTML attribute that configures the file name of an image
CORRECT: src
2. CSS property that configures placement of the background image
CORRECT: background-position
3. HTML element that configures a horizontal line
CORRECT: hr
4. Type of graphic intended for use with photographs
CORRECT: JPG
5. CSS property that configures the background color of an element
CORRECT: background-color
6. CSS property that configures the style of border
CORRECT: border-style
7. CSS property that configures a shadow effect on a block display element
CORRECT: box-shadow
8. CSS property that resizes or scales a background image
CORRECT: background-size

8 Matching Questions

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. figcaption | a Type of graphic best used for line drawings and clip art |
| e CORRECT: HTML5 element that configures a caption for a figure | b HTML attribute that configures a text description of an image |
| 2. GIF | c CSS property that confines the display of the |
| a CORRECT: Type of graphic best used for line drawings and clip art | |

3. background-origin

- ☒ CORRECT: CSS property that positions the background image relative to the content, padding, or border

4. background-clip

- ☒ CORRECT: CSS property that confines the display of the background image

5. img

- ☒ CORRECT: HTML element that configures a graphic on a web page

6. alt

- ☒ CORRECT: HTML attribute that configures a text description of an image

7. gradient

- ☒ CORRECT: A smooth blending of shades from one color to another

8. PNG

- ☒ CORRECT: Type of graphic that supports millions of colors and transparency background image☐ d

CSS property that positions the background image relative to the content, padding, or border

☐ e

HTML5 element that configures a caption for a figure

☐ f

HTML element that configures a graphic on a web page

☐ g

Type of graphic that supports millions of colors and transparency

☐ h

A smooth blending of shades from one color to another

7 Multiple Choice Questions

1. CSS property that configures rounded corners on an element
- a. border-width
 - b. CORRECT: border-radius
 - c. border-color
 - d. border-style

2. Area between the padding and the margin of an element
 - a. gradient
 - b. hr
 - c. src
 - d. CORRECT: border

3. HTML5 element that configures a self-contained unit of content, such as an image
 - a. GIF
 - b. CORRECT: figure
 - c. align
 - d. src

4. CSS property that configures the color of a border
 - a. border-style
 - b. border-width
 - c. border
 - d. CORRECT: border-color

5. Process of creating a slight blur to smooth the jagged edges in digital images
 - a. padding
 - b. gradient
 - c. CORRECT: antialiasing
 - d. align

6. Area between the content and border of an element
 - a. gradient
 - b. align
 - c. PNG
 - d. CORRECT: padding

7. CSS property that configures a shadow effect on text
 - a. CORRECT: text-shadow
 - b. src
 - c. hotspot
 - d. box-shadow

7 True/False Questions

1. opacity → CSS property that configures the transparency of an element

CORRECT: This is true.

2. background-image → CSS property that configures a graphic as a background

CORRECT: This is true.

3. align → HTML attribute that configures a text description of an image

CORRECT: This is false.

It should be align → HTML attribute that configures horizontal alignment.

4. accessibility → Provides alternate equivalent content of non-text media

CORRECT: This is true.

5. hotspot → CSS property that configures the transparency of an element

CORRECT: This is false.

It should be hotspot → Clickable area on an image map.

6. image map → Image configured with multiple clickable areas

CORRECT: This is true.

7. border-width → CSS property that configures the style of border

CORRECT: This is false.

It should be border-width → CSS property that configures thickness of the border.