

NAME: _____

Chapter 2 Review

A+
100%

7 Written Questions

1. Elements that are rendered (displayed) directly in line with the text

CORRECT: inline display

2. HTML element that contains the description area for a term in a description list

CORRECT: dd

3. HTML element that configures the term in a description list

CORRECT: dt

4. HTML element that specifies emphasized (italic) text

CORRECT: em

5. This special character configures the copyright symbol

CORRECT: ©

6. This type of list is displayed with "bullets" in front of each item

CORRECT: unordered

7. HTML element that contains an item in an ordered or unordered list

CORRECT: li

6 Matching Questions

1. description

☒ CORRECT: A list that is a good choice for a glossary or collection of FAQs

a

An attribute that configures the name and location of the file to access when a hyperlink is selected

2. ordered

☒ CORRECT: A list that automatically numbers the items displayed

b

A list that automatically numbers the items displayed

c

A list that is a good choice for a glossary or collection of FAQs

3. anchor

d

☐ CORRECT: The purpose of this element is to configure a hyperlink

Attribute of the ol element configures the appearance of the ordered list

☐ HTML element that configures a line break

☐

The purpose of this element is to configure a hyperlink

4. br

☐ CORRECT: HTML element that configures a line break

5. type

☐ CORRECT: Attribute of the ol element configures the appearance of the ordered list

6. href

☐ CORRECT: An attribute that configures the name and location of the file to access when a hyperlink is selected

6 Multiple Choice Questions

1. Elements that are rendered (displayed) with empty space above and below

- a. body
- b. inline display
- c. blockquote
- d. CORRECT: block display

2. HTML element that configures a structural area or "division" on a web page

- a. dt
- b. CORRECT: div
- c. dl
- d. li

3. HTML element that contains the content to display in the browser viewport
 - a. br
 - b. CORRECT: body
 - c. dt
 - d. dl

4. Use this in the href value when configuring an e-mail link
 - a. div
 - b. CORRECT: mailto:
 - c. anchor
 - d. dl

5. HTML element that configures the smallest heading
 - a. CORRECT: h6
 - b. em
 - c. li
 - d. h1

6. Checking your web page document for conformance with W3C recommendations
 - a. CORRECT: validation
 - b. description
 - c. li
 - d. mailto:

6 True/False Questions

1. left → The default alignment of content on a web page
2. → This special character configures the copyright symbol

CORRECT: This is true.

CORRECT: This is false.

It should be   → This special character can be used to add one or more blank spaces between web page content.

3. head → HTML element that contains the head section of the web page

CORRECT: This is true.

4. dl → HTML element that contains a description list (formerly called a definition list)

CORRECT: This is true.

5. html → HTML element that configures the term in a description list

CORRECT: This is false.

It should be html → HTML element that contains a web page document.

6. blockquote → The default alignment of content on a web page

CORRECT: This is false.

It should be blockquote → HTML element that is intended for use with quotations.